Shots fired from world's first 3D-printed handgun

The world's first gun made almost entirely by a 3D plastic printer has been successfully fired in Texas. Cody Wilson, 25, successfully tested plastic handgun built by his Texas firm Defense Distributed using an $8,000 3D printer. Wilson and a companion successfully fired the gun for the first time in Austin, Texas, at the weekend, Forbes reported. Read more

Air India pilot reportedly left attendants to fly plane while he naps

An Air India pilot has been suspended after reportedly leaving the cockpit during a flight to take a nap in business class, leaving two female cabin attendants to man the controls. The incident happened 33,000 feet in the sky on a 160-passenger flight from Bangkok to Delhi. Read more

New Terminal 5 likely to be Changi Airport's biggest terminal

With Terminal 4 at Changi Airport in sight, the Government has, after months of studies, decided to build Terminal 5. Singapore's fifth airport passenger terminal will be ready in the next decade, said Transport Minister Lui Tuck Yew. Observers believe the new Terminal 5 will most likely be the airport's biggest terminal, with the capacity to handle between 30 and 50 million passengers a year. And they expect the new terminal to contribute to a more seamless travel experience for passengers. Read more

British lawmakers reject "Boris Island" airport plan

British lawmakers on Friday urged the rejection of plans to build a new airport east of London on the River Thames and instead backed the expansion of Heathrow, already one of the world's busiest air hubs. Parliament's Transport Committee warned that the Thames proposal, dubbed "Boris Island" after its biggest champion, London Mayor Boris Johnson, would be extremely expensive and could harm local wildlife. Egyptian security forces thwart Al-Qaeda embassy bombing

Egypt's security forces have foiled an "imminent" attack on a foreign embassy plotted by an Al-Qaeda cell, according to Interior Minister Mohamed Ibrahim. "The interior ministry was able to direct a qualitative blow to a terrorist cell which was planning to carry out suicide attacks against vital, important and foreign establishments," declared Ibrahim. Raid on western Minnesota home thwarted terror attack: FBI

Authorities disrupted a terror plot and possibly saved lives when they raided a home in western Minnesota last week and recovered several guns including an assault rifle and explosive devices, the FBI said. Federal, state and local law enforcement officers descended on the property, in Montevideo, Minnesota, where they arrested one man and recovered weapons and explosives after executing a search warrant. Indonesian police kill seven in raids on suspected militants

Indonesia's elite anti-terrorism unit took part in three operations to root out suspected Islamist militants, killing seven and arresting six others. The separate missions, spanning 24 hours, may have links to a foiled plot to bomb the Myanmar embassy. Read more

U.S. says Chinese government behind cyber espionage

The Pentagon for the first time used its annual report on China to directly assert that Beijing's government and military have conducted computer-based attacks against the United States, including efforts to steal information from federal agencies. Read more

White House disputes UN official's claim on Syria opposition using chemical weapons

The Obama administration disputed a U.N. official's initial claim that opposition forces -- and not the Assad regime -- may have been the ones who used chemical weapons in Syria, as U.N. investigators began to walk back the controversial comments. Read more

$7.5M in cocaine washes onto St. Johns beaches

The St. Johns County Sheriff's Office says they collected a total of 25 kilograms of packaged cocaine on Friday that had washed up on beaches from Ponte Vedra south to Crescent Beach. Deputies showed off the cocaine, saying the street value of the drugs would equal $7.5 million. Drug agents say the cocaine was intended for somewhere along the coast of Florida, but it ended up in the ocean. Video Report
