Breast implants suicide bomb threat: Heathrow on high alert over "credible" intelligence

Heathrow Airport is on high terror alert amid fears women suicide bombers are ready to strike with - explosives concealed in breast implants. Security checks have been beefed up after "credible" intelligence that al-Qaeda is plotting attacks on airlines flying out of London. Read more

Airport security farce: Deadlier knives than used on 9/11 sold in duty free - and taken on London flight.

Major security concerns have been raised after a Mail on Sunday reporter boarded a British Airways flight to London carrying five knives – bought in an air-side duty free shop – with blades longer than those used by the 9/11 hijackers. He walked unchecked on to the packed plane after buying the potentially lethal £20 Swiss Army knives at Zurich airport, Switzerland. The knives are on open sale, despite similar ones being used in a plane hijack attempt only two years ago. The startling revelation poses a massive question mark over the disparity of security checks at airports. Read more

Former United Airlines flight attendant pleads guilty to making bomb threats

A former United Airlines flight attendant has agreed to plead guilty to making a bomb threat against a United jet flying between London and Los Angeles. The man's attorney said that United had declined to investigate the man's claims that a male supervisor sexually harassed him. Read more

Emergency Sends Airport Out of Kilter on Busiest Day Ever

A state of emergency was declared at Ben Gurion Airport Thursday morning – on the airport's busiest day ever. The state of emergency was lifted after an Arkia plane that had reported a major safety issue successfully returned to the tarmac – but not before causing major delays for many inbound and outbound fights. JFC pushing 'twin-airport solution' for PH aviation

Foreign businessmen called on the government to consider seriously the “twin-airport solution” that is anchored on making the Ninoy Aquino International Airport (Naia) more efficient while expanding the Clark International Airport in Pampanga. The Joint Foreign Chambers (JFC) made this proposal in a position paper it submitted recently to the Department of Transportation and Communications (DOTC). Read more

NSA collected thousands of U.S. communications with no connection to terrorism: report

The National Security Agency declassified three secret U.S. court opinions showing how it scooped up as many as 56,000 emails and other communications by Americans with no connection to terrorism annually over three years, how it revealed the error to the court and changed how it gathered Internet communications. Director of National Intelligence James Clapper authorized the release Wednesday. Read more

Thailand convicts 2 Iranian men in botched bomb plot

Two Iranian men were convicted Thursday of taking part in a botched bomb plot that was exposed last year when an accidental explosion blew apart the Bangkok villa where they were staying. Israeli and Thai officials have said the plot was aimed at Israeli diplomats in Bangkok, the capital, though Iran denied the allegations and neither defendant was charged with terrorism or attempting to kill Israelis. Iraq premier warns of weapons smuggled from Syria

Iraq's prime minister warned Saturday that weapons and fighters flowing into Syria are now making their way to Iraq, as a rising tide of violence sweeps across the country. Prime Minister Nouri al-Maliki said that weapons provided by some countries to the Syrian rebels and foreign fighters attempting to topple Syrian President Bashar Assad, are now ending up in Iraq. More overstayers, contraband smuggling cases in first half of 2013

The total number of immigration offenders arrested by the Immigration & Checkpoints Authority (ICA) in the first half of this year has fallen, but the number of overstayers arrested and contraband smuggling cases detected increased. Read more

Fight human smuggling: Sri Lanka

The Sri Lankan government Thursday sought joint international action to combat human smuggling. Justice Minister Rauff Hakeem said no amount of action taken locally will bring about a lasting solution to the human smuggling issue unless the international community together implements sustained and effective measures to prevent such activities.
