How Does Air Traffic Control Work At Dubai International Airport?

Ever wondered how your aeroplane is guided out of the airport? Or how aircrafts don't bump into each other in the sky? Here's a step-by-step guide. Read more

Domodedovo Airport installs self-service kiosks for mishandled baggage reporting

Moscow Domodedovo Airport has installed self-service WorldTracer kiosks, which allow passengers to report lost or delayed bags without having to queue up to see an agent. Passengers can scan their bag receipt barcode at one of the kiosks in the arrivals area to file a missing bag report. The kiosks are linked to WorldTracer, the global tracing system for mishandled baggage that was developed by SITA and IATA, which then matches found bags with lost bag reports. Read more

Bus bomb blast in Tel Aviv suburb

A pipe bomb believed to have been planted by Palestinian militants exploded on board a bus in central Israel just moments after it had been evacuated, police said, in the most serious attack inside Israel in more than a year. The explosion in a Tel Aviv suburb threatened to further poison what has become a tense and negative atmosphere between the Israelis and the Palestinians since peace talks were resumed after five year hiatus in the summer. Thai protesters block poll registration stadium

Anti-government demonstrators in Thailand have surrounded the stadium where candidates were due to register to stand in February's elections. They say political reform is needed before elections take place. On Sunday, tens of thousands took to the streets of Bangkok, calling on the government to step down. Read more

China military ship to help guard Syria chemical weapons destruction

China is to send a military ship to help protect a specially adapted U.S. vessel that will destroy Syria's chemical weapons arsenal, the Foreign Ministry said on Thursday. Syria is due to hand over deadly toxins which can be used to make sarin, VX gas and other lethal agents under an international agreement forged after an attack on the outskirts of Damascus killed hundreds in August.
