Olaf Scholz's Plane Evacuated On Runway Following Rocket Attack In Israel

German Chancellor Olaf Scholz's plane had to be evacuated at Israel's Ben Gurion Airport on Tuesday evening due to rocket attacks. Pictures and videos posted on social media show how aides and journalists traveling with the German leader had to hastily leave the plane and take cover by lying down on the runway, while Scholz was reportedly evacuated to a shelter. "I personally saw explosions in the sky as the Israeli Iron Dome [air defense system] intercepted two missiles," Robin Alexander, deputy editor-in-chief of German daily Welt, which, like POLITICO, is owned by Axel Springer, wrote on X, formerly Twitter, referring to rockets intercepted by the Iron Dome.

Airport Security Upgraded At Midfield Terminal Building In Abu Dhabi

Delivered in partnership with Atlas Security, deployment of Ipsotek's AI video analytics solutions are anticipated to improve operations, security, and safety across various areas of the Midfield Terminal Building, which is renowned for its architecture and recently gained international attention as a filming location for Mission: Impossible – Dead Reckoning Part One. The surveillance capabilities of the solution help to enable operators to detect and identify potential threats across various zones of the airport. By leveraging intelligent algorithms and machine learning, the system is designed to recognise suspicious behaviours, unauthorised access attempts, or other pre-defined security risks in real-time, allowing for swift response and mitigation.

TSA Officers Prevent Third Traveler This Month From Bringing Loaded Gun Onto Flight At Richmond International Airport

Transportation Security Administration (TSA) officers at Richmond International Airport prevented a Scottsville, Va., man from bringing his handgun onto a flight this morning, Tuesday, Oct. 17, marking the third gun caught by TSA at one of the airport checkpoints so far this month. The 9mm handgun was loaded with 15 bullets including one in the chamber. The gun was caught as the man entered the security checkpoint. The X-ray unit alerted on the carry-on bag, which required a closer inspection. The firearm was removed by the Richmond Airport Police, who cited the man on a weapons charge.
