

CJ Consulting Group Pte Ltd
218 Loyang Ave #01-06
Singapore 509066
Tel: +65 8877 4865
Email: chris@cjsc.com.sg
www.cjsc.com.sg

Consultancy Services

Security Audits & Inspections

Security audits for Commercial Premises, Airports, Ports and Shipping Vessels.

Regulated Agent Regime for Airfreight Security

Study, Development and Implementation of RAR in accordance to ICAO Annex 17.

Hold Baggage Screening System

Study, Development and Recommendations for HBS systems in Airports and Ports.

Writing of security Programs

Corporate Security Training

Bomb Threat Management

Understanding & Managing Security Threats

Security Management

Security Awareness for Employees

First Line Crisis Mitigation

Crime Prevention Techniques

Campus, Hospital and Hotel Security

Risk & Vulnerability Assessment

Basic Investigations Course

Biafran Dragon Fighter Marine (DFM) Commando Blows Up an Oil Vessel and Two Military Gunships

On 13 November, in the morning hours, a Dragon Fighter Marine (DFM) commando carried out an assault on an oil vessel in the territorial waters of Cameroon, in the Bakassi Peninsula. The ship was anchored at a creek in Bakassi, waiting to load oil from a depot. With heavy weapons, the assailants attacked the vessel and two escort military gunboats belonging to the Nigerian-Cameroonian Joint Border Force. The commando then placed IEDs on the targeted oil vessel and the military gunboats and blew them up. Three soldiers were killed, while six persons were seriously injured. No precise data concerning the entirety of the damage to the military boats or the oil ship are available.

RGIA Shamshabad police arrest four unruly air passengers

The RGIA Shamshabad police detained four drunk passengers who were creating a ruckus on the Doha-Hyderabad-Kerala flight, following a complaint lodged by an Indigo airline employee, Sri Krishna Sharma, on Thursday. Krishna stated in his complaint that the airline cabin crew had cautioned the four passengers twice to maintain peace but they continued to fight among themselves and disturb other passengers. After a woman passenger complained to the crew, Krishna approached the RGIA police. The four passengers apologised and said that they did not understand English or Hindi and were cracking jokes, police said. In view of the complaint, the passengers were detained.

US Green card holder accused of presenting false passport

US green card holder Sergiu Cristian Lingurar has been denied bail after being arrested at Shannon Airport for presenting a fake passport for a 13-year-old. Sergiu Cristian Lingurar, 25, of Ridgewood, New York, appeared at Ennis District Court yesterday, Tuesday, July 25, accused of presenting a false passport for a 13-year-old boy in order for the boy to gain entry to the US. Lingurar, a Romanian national, allegedly presented the fake passport for the teenager at the US immigration control, the Customs and Border Protection (CBP) facility at Shannon Airport on Monday, July 24, according to the Irish Independent. O'Grady told Judge Mary Cashin that Lingurar, who is a father of two young children in the US and works in construction/removals and has been living in the US for a number of years, may be facing further charges and the circumstances of the case remain under investigation.

Passengers Deboarded In Kochi After Bengaluru Bound Flight Receives Bomb Threat

After receiving a call about a bomb threat in an aircraft, Indigo passengers were evacuated from their Bengaluru-bound flight at the Kochi airport on Monday. Reportedly, the flight 6E6482 was scheduled to depart for Bengaluru at 10.30 AM. The airport sources told PTI that after the passengers were deboarded, they were asked to move into isolation for further inspection. Nedumbassery police also reportedly confirmed receipt of the bomb threat and they informed the media that a team has been sent to investigate the matter. Police said further details would be available only after the team's initial investigation.

Aviation Professionals Convene in Kenya to Improve African Airlines' Security, Safety

Aviation experts are meeting in Kenya this week to examine methods to improve security and safety for Africa's airlines and airports. Beyond those topics, the eighth meeting of the International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO) will also involve discussions on air transport facilitation and sustainability in Africa. The principal secretary for Kenya's department of transport, Mohamed Daghar, told the conference that Kenyan airports now have technology for security measures that make travel for passengers both safe and smooth. "We now have in place the prerequisite infrastructure and capabilities to fully participate in ICAO's public key directory, the advanced passenger information and the passenger name record," Daghar said. "This will see Kenya join the global community in making the passenger journey seamless."

Spanish Police Uncover Airport Suitcase Scam

Police have arrested a group of fraudsters who swindled thousands in what has become known as a suitcase scam at airports around Spain. A report published on August 21 by the Policia Nacional gave details of a crackdown on a criminal group operating out of Madrid, who had conned unsuspecting victims out of over €6,500. This operation was initiated after the director of a bank flagged multiple fraudulent activities linked to this scam. The airport suitcase scam involves fraudsters sending out bulk messages. They pretend to be friends or relatives stuck abroad, urgently needing money for taxes, fines, or luggage shipments. Typically, they claim that due to last-minute documentation issues, they couldn't board their flight, but their luggage did.

Ex-head of security at Geneva Airport convicted of corruption

The Criminal Court in Geneva sentenced the former head of security at Geneva airport to three years in prison for passive bribery, six months of which were unconditional on Friday. The man had favoured a company in exchange for money so that it received orders from the airport. The former executive, who admitted to the offences, appeared in court under a simplified procedure. He was found guilty of passive bribery, unfaithful business management, breach of official secrecy, incitement to forgery of documents and aiding and abetting unemployment insurance fraud.

Aviation & Maritime Training

Aviation Security for Senior Management, Supervisors

AVSEC for front-line Security Officers

Tactical Profiling Course

Bomb Threat Handling

Document Verification Course (Travel documents)

Check-point Screeners Course (x-ray)
Regulated Agent Regime for Airfreight

Understanding Explosives

International Ship & Port Facility Security Code

Maritime Security Audits & Inspections

CJ Consulting Group Pte Ltd
218 Loyang Ave #01-06
Singapore 509066
Tel: +65 8877 4865
Email: chris@cjsc.com.sg
www.cjsc.com.sg